Ms. Underhill Offers Exhibits

438

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MS. UNDERHILL: It was an offer that I made
3 during testimony previously and Mr. West objected, so it
4 was findings of fact that Judge Greenlick made in 5 October 2014. So, again, I would like to offer that. I
6 have a certified copy of the transcript. I think it
7 comes in both under OEC 201(b)(2) and 803(8). She thinks it

8 THE COURT: Hang on a moment. First of all, what 9 have you marked this exhibit?

10 MS. UNDERHILL: Pardon? This would be Child's 11 Exhibit 101. Are you sure???

12 THE COURT: Does Mr. West have exhibits marked
13 already? Are you starting with two? Have you all 14 discussed this? Is your -- do you have exhibits? under OEC 201(b)(2) and 803(8)

15 MR. WEST: No. what is all of this about?

16 THE COURT: All right, 101. So, and remind me
17 one more time, because you were talking too fast for me,
18 OEC what? neither. It does or it does not.

19 MS. UNDERHILL: 201(b)(2) and 803(8).

20 THE COURT: And 201(b)(2) is what?

21 MS. UNDERHILL: That's basically judicial notice. that's basically judicial notice

22 A judicially noticed fact must be one that's subject to 23 reasonable dispute in that it is either capable of 24 accurate and ready determination by resort to sources 25 who accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned. And the may really don't know do that that it seems to me the facts are not true

1 fact that I have a certified transcript of the judge's
2 comments.

3 THE COURT: So you're asking me to take judicial 4 notice as opposed to receiving it as an exhibit?

5 MS. UNDERHILL: Well, that's one way to do it.
6 I also believe that it comes in under --

7 THE COURT: As an exception to the hearsay rule
8 under 803(8) which is what?

9 MS. UNDERHILL: Eight, correct, which is records
10 reports, statements, data in any form of a public office
11 or agency when a matter observed pursuant to a duty
12 imposed by law. Basically the judge has a duty to 13 listen to the witnesses, make findings of facts, that's 14 what he did. I have, again, a certified copy of the 15 transcript.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to the Court receiving
17 Exhibit 101?

18 MR. WEST: Well, I'll renew my objection. I
19 believe the Court already ruled on this previously and 20 sustained the objection.

21 THE COURT: Well, I think what I ruled on was the 22 questioning -- introducing from a witness statements
23 that she heard the judge make in the courtroom, and I
24 sustained that hearsay objection. Now we have the 25 offering of an exhibit, and so my ruling is not as to

1 the exhibit being offered.

2 MR. WEST: I understand. I'll still object
3 here. I don't believe this falls with what generally
4 comes under the realm of 201(b)(2), judicial notice.

5 This is not such things as, you know, the date of the 6 week or the year or, you know, things that are typically 7 included under judicial notice. And I --

8 THE COURT: So let's just address that first.
9 Does the State have a position on judicial notice,
10 whether the Court should take judicial notice?

11 MS. POPKIN: Your Honor, the State takes no
12 position on that.

13 THE COURT: Do you want to respond to him?
14 Because I'm in agreement with him on what's appropriate,
15 things for me to take judicial notice of.

16 MS. UNDERHILL: Judicial notice includes findings
17 of facts, and that's what this is and it's a --

18 THE COURT: And findings of fact in litigation,
19 there is a reference --

20 MS. UNDERHILL: Right. Finding a witness not 21 credible, finding of fact about the demeanor of a
22 witness.

23 THE COURT: 201. Well, certainly, it's not --
24 your cite is 201(b)(2)?

25 MS. UNDERHILL: Correct.

1 (Pause)

2 THE COURT: Well, okay. So, looking at
3 Kirkpatrick, who often guides me in these issues, his 4 description of the kinds of evidence that are
5 appropriate under this subsection is that -- (Pause) --
6 that the facts be generally indisputable because either
7 it's generally known within the territorial jurisdiction
8 or it's capable of accurate and ready determination by 9 resort to sources whose accuracy cannot be reasonably
10 questioned.

11 So the standard for judicial notice is strict. It
12 should only -- one court in Oregon -- or federal court,
13 has commented that it should only apply to self- evident
14 truths that no reasonable person could question, truisms
15 that approach platitudes or venalities.

16 What you're asking me to do is accept an exhibit
17 which has another judicial officer's findings. So are 18 you asking me -- and then what are you asking me to do
19 once I have that judicial officer's findings? Somehow
20 extrapolate because he found Mother not credible in one
21 finding that somehow that determination should apply to 22 my determinations of credibility in this proceeding?

23 MS. UNDERHILL: That is not what I'm asking you.

24 THE COURT: So what's the underlying purpose for 25 you offering this exhibit? Let's go there.

1 MS. UNDERHILL: To show that the mother's 2 presentation and behavior has been consistent over the 3 time in this case.

4 THE COURT: Oh, his -- I'm sorry, his finding was 5 not as to credibility, it was --

6 MS. UNDERHILL: Well, it was as to credibility,
7 but that is not my emphasis at all, in fact I think you
8 may be wrong about that, but it has to do with his --

9 THE COURT: Finding that she was intoxicated by 10 the use of drugs?

11 MS. UNDERHILL: -- she appeared to be under the 12 influence.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I am not going to admit
14 it under the first argument, which is the Court should 15 take judicial notice of the other court's findings in 16 that case. But I want to look at 803(8) and that 17 exception is -- is that a business record exception?

18 MS. UNDERHILL: No, Your Honor, that's six, this 19 is eight.

20 THE COURT: Okay, eight.

21 MS. UNDERHILL: Which is another...

22 THE COURT: Public records, okay. So it's the 23 public records exception. Records, reports, statements,
24 data compilations of public offices or agencies.

25 So, Mr. West, let me hear you respond to the

Ms. Underhill Offers Exhibits

443

1 request under the public records.

2 MR. WEST: Well, I think that there's still
3 problems with -- my objections would be based on 4 hearsay, would be based on relevance to this proceeding
5 and the questions here today, and also due process in 6 terms of lack of confrontation opportunity.

7 THE COURT: Well, I would overrule your
8 objections as to the first two criteria and say that if 9 it's a certified true copy it would otherwise be 10 admissible under public records. But why don't you
11 respond to the confrontation objection. So...

12 MS. UNDERHILL: Well, I don't think I can, Your 13 Honor. The mother was not a party, she was a witness in 14 that hearing. She was not -- I mean, she's a party but 15 that -- that trial had to do with the father in the 16 dependency case.

17 THE COURT: No, I understand. Her objection is 18 that by me taking the judge's observations, he's not 19 here for Mr. West to question about his ability to 20 observe, anything else that he might want to ask a 21 witness about.

22 MS. UNDERHILL: Well, Your Honor, given that 23 it's a transcript of the judge's findings and he had an 24 opportunity to look at the witness, I just don't see
25 that as a pertinent objection.

Ms. Underhill's Offer of Proof

1 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to sustain the
2 objection, I will not receive the exhibit.

3 MS. UNDERHILL: Your Honor, I would like to make
4 an offer of proof.

5 THE COURT: Absolutely. Offer of proof will be
6 affected. I will not review that exhibit for purposes
7 of my determination.

8 MS. UNDERHILL: And just for the record, Your 9 Honor, I have one piece of --

10 THE COURT: I'm sorry, to interrupt, I'll give 11 you a continuing objection to that.

12 MS. UNDERHILL: Okay. And I have -- there is 13 just one page that was of importance to me in terms of 14 this hearing, so I just made a copy of that.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. UNDERHILL: But this is the entire transcript.

17 THE COURT: But the only portion of that 18 transcript that you're offering is what's reflected in 19 that written page of transcript?

20 MS. UNDERHILL: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. So we will 22 receive the offer of -- well, we'll accept the offer of 23 proof, but it's not received as an exhibit in this 24 hearing.

25 Mr. West -- anything else, Ms. Underhill, as far

KATE BROWN'S GUARD! (D.O.D. ID) CHILDREN!!!
*SSR pushed through forced adoption **

Summary: This measure asks voters to approve or reject temporary assessments created as part of House Bill 2391, enacted by the 2017 Oregon Legislature to address certain health care funding issues. The House Bill provided funding to pay costs for providing health care to low-income adults, children, families, and individuals with disabilities, and to stabilize premiums charged by insurance companies for health insurance purchased by individuals and families. The House Bill provided the funding through 1.5 percent assessments on premiums and premium equivalents (defined in the House Bill) of health insurance companies, the Public Employees' Benefit Board, and managed care organizations for a two-year period, and additional 0.7 percent assessments on the net revenue of some hospitals that begins on October 6, 2017, and ends on July 1, 2019. This measure asks voters to approve or reject the assessments on insurance companies, the Public Employees' Benefit Board, and managed care organizations, and specifies that insurance companies may not increase rates on health insurance premiums by more than 1.5 percent as a result of these assessments. If this measure passes, the assessments on some hospitals will be approved, subject to approval by a federal agency. If the measure does not pass, the assessments on some hospitals will either be rejected, or delayed until approved by a federal agency.

Estimate of Financial Impact: Revenue from this measure is included in the 2017-19 state budget to pay for health care for low-income adults, children and families and individuals with disabilities and to stabilize health insurance premiums paid by individuals and families.

Revenue will come from a 0.7% assessment on certain hospitals, as well as a 1.5% assessment on the Public Employees Benefit Board, managed care organizations, and insurers. Insurers may not increase rates for consumers by more than 1.5% to recover this assessment.

If the measure passes, the health care program and health insurance premiums stabilization program are funded as adopted by the 2017 Legislative Assembly.

If the measure is defeated there will be a reduction of $210-$320 million in state revenue, resulting in a possible reduction of $630-$960 million, or more in federal Medicaid matching funds. The total revenue reduction to the 2017-19 state budget may be $840 million-$1.3 billion or more.

Although there is no direct financial effect on local government revenues, there may be an indeterminate effect on local government expenditures related to increases in associated insurance assessments. There is likely to be an indirect and indeterminate effect on the state economy and local government revenues and expenditures.

Result of "Yes" Vote: "Yes" vote approves temporary assessments on insurance companies, some hospitals, the Public Employees' Benefit Board, and managed care organizations. Assessments provide funding for health care for low-income individuals and families, and individuals with disabilities; also stabilize premiums charged by insurance companies for health insurance purchased by individuals and families. Insurance companies may not increase rates on health insurance premiums by more than 1.5 percent as a result of the assessments. Hospital assessments may not begin without approval by a federal agency.

Result of "No" Vote: "No" vote rejects temporary assessments on insurance companies, the Public Employees' Benefit Board, and managed care organizations; and either rejects or delays temporary assessments on some hospitals. Assessments rejected (or delayed) by a "no" vote are currently budgeted to fund health care for low-income individuals and families and individuals with disabilities and for stabilizing the costs of insurance premiums. As a result, a "no" vote would underfund these budgeted costs.
